

COMMENCEMENT SCENES.

EXERCISES AT ROANOKE COLLEGE.

Dr. Greer, of New York, Delivers the Baccalaureate Sermon—A Brilliant Oration by Hon. William J. Bryan.

SALEM, Va., June 15.—(Special.)—The commencement exercises of the thirty-ninth year of Roanoke College have been very successful. Beginning with the eloquent baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Dr. David H. Greer, of New York, and the able address before the Young Men's Christian Association by Rev. William H. Dunbar, of Lebanon, Pa., on Sunday, through the exercises of Monday, the brilliant oration of Congressman William J. Bryan, of Nebraska, Tuesday evening, the beautiful illumination and promenade concert on the campus Monday and Tuesday evenings and the graduating addresses of today, the commencement throughout has been most successful and enjoyable.

The programme today was as follows: The Commencement Exercises, Salem, N. C.—Latin salutatory. James Brown Shantz, Wytheville, Va.—Is Our National Progress Stagnant? Thomas Franklin Hawes, Harrison, Ga.—The Decay of Patriotism. Edward Victor Cox, Dunn, N. C.—National Outlook of Railroads. Hugh Adam Funk, Strasburg, Va.—The Farmers' Grievances. Herbert Meloy Smith, Conover, N. C.—The Future of Invention. Charles Benton Cannaday, Roanoke, Va.—Valedictory poem.

All of the addresses were carefully prepared and well delivered, and made a most favorable impression on the large audience. The valedictory poem was especially well received and was generally pronounced a fine production by young men.

CONFERRING DEGREES.
President Dreher then conferred the degree of bachelor of arts on the members of the class, including those who spoke and the following:

John J. Bruback, Weyer's Cave, Va.; John A. Crigler, Danville, Va.; Eli C. Cronk, Salem, Va.; John S. Draper, Jr., Pulaski City, Va.; Luther Frantz, Salem, Va.; Walton H. Grever, Burke's Garden, Va.; James McClellan, Salem, Va.; W. M. Wright, Lynchburg, Va.; James W. Sieg, Churchville, Va.; Morgan B. Stokley, Good's Mill, Va.; R. Minor Wiley, Salem, Va.; James P. Woods, Catawba, Va.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS.
The degree of master of arts was conferred on the following members of the class of 1897:

Rev. C. A. Brown, Floyd Courthouse, Va.; A. Grever, Burke's Garden, Va.; E. L. Keen, Bloomfield, Va.; Rev. C. A. H. Keen, Salem, Va.; Paul Sieg, Churchville, Va.; E. A. Smith, Conover, N. C.; F. S. Tavenner, Woodstock, Va.; Professor P. E. Wright, Knoxville, N. C.; S. R. Kixey, Low Moor, Va.

DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF DIVINITY.
Rev. Edward Henry Ward, A. M. (class of '70), Lexington, Ky.; Rev. James Augustine Brown, A. M., Wytheville, Va.

PRESENTATION OF PRIZES.
The junior prize scholarship in English language and literature was presented to Robert Martin Calfee, of Pulaski, Va.

The trustees' medal in mathematics to Melvin Jacob Killian, Salem, Va.
The contest for the Greek resulted in a tie, and as the grades were nearly the maximum a medal was awarded to each of the contestants—Carroll Herman Little, Hickory, N. C., and Jerry Clarence Stone, Dublin, Va.

The medal in oratory, won on Monday evening, was presented to Walton Harlow Grever, of Lanesville, Va.

DISTINCTIONS.
Certificates of first and second distinctions were delivered to the following undergraduates:

First Distinction (average grade 95 to 100)—R. M. Calfee, Pulaski City, Va.; R. E. Cook, Salem, Va.; W. S. Cox, Fort Blackmore, Va.; R. C. Craig, Staunton, Va.; W. Mcintosh, Everhart, Waterford, Va.; C. H. Little, Hickory, N. C.; J. D. Reddick, Lovettsville, Va.; J. W. Shuey, Swoope, Va.

Second Distinction (average grade 90 to 95)—C. L. Brown, Spartanburg, S. C.; E. L. Durrigheis, Fungo, Va.; C. S. Hildreth, Lexington, Va.; C. H. Little, Hickory, N. C.; H. Hoover, New Market, Va.; M. J. Killian, Salem, Va.; E. O. Kizer, Salem, Va.; A. F. Kyger, Fort Republic, Va.; J. W. Lamm, Lucama, N. C.; C. L. Miller, Gold Hill, N. C.; M. T. McWhorter, Salem, Va.; J. W. Porter, Salem, Va.; J. W. Porter, Salem, Va.; T. T. Smith, Salem, Va.; J. C. Stone, Dublin, Va.; J. A. Turnpenny, McCool, Miss.; W. W. Walker, Eggleston, Va.; L. V. Walker, Eggleston, Va.; V. H. VanDeventer, Waterford, Va.

Dr. Dreher announced that as a mark of the appreciation felt by the trustees for the bestowment of $25,000 to the college by the late Henry J. Steere, of Providence, R. I., an oil portrait of this benefactor of Roanoke has been placed in the college library, and the trustees have been named in his honor, so that Dr. S. C. Wells, the senior member of the faculty, now entering upon his fortieth year of service to the college, will be known hereafter as Steere Professor of mathematics and astronomy.

It was also stated that the college year had been prosperous, the number of students having increased and the financial condition of the institution improved. The thanks of the trustees and faculty were expressed to the many friends who have aided the college during the session.

The trustees have under consideration the establishment of a separate preparatory school in Salem to meet the wants of the town and to receive the younger pupils who wish every year to come to the college. It is expected that this matter will be fully decided upon in a week or two and arrangements completed to open the school in the fall.

Trial of Negroes—The Third Party.
RICHMOND, Va., June 15. (Special.)—The trial of six negroes in an attempt to murder Messrs. Hubbard and Bradshaw, two highly respected white citizens, began yesterday and is still in progress. Commonwealth's Attorney Lee, of Amherst, is assisting the prosecution and V. E. Howard, of Lynchburg, is defending the accused.

The Third Party held a county convention here today. The body assembled in the basement of the court-house and elected Captain D. R. Booth chairman, and who ascended the platform and explained the object of the meeting, which was to appoint a delegate to the State Convention to be held in Richmond June 23d. The meeting was then addressed by Dr. Evans and Colonel J. R. Hutter, two Hall delegates to the recent Democratic Convention in Richmond.

A resolution was passed affirming their allegiance to the Democratic party, but claiming that they thought it best to organize and prepare for battle in case of an emergency, that is, should the Chicago Convention not select their man or adopt their views, Colonel Hutter was chosen their delegate to Richmond.

Judge Ward has returned from the seashore, where he went for his health. He was present and on the bench.

Trial of John Gritzle.
LEBANON, Va., June 15. (Special.)—County court closed a week's session last Saturday morning, having been engaged in the trial of James Gritzle, upon a charge of murdering John Breeding on Dumpe creek, in this county, in the month of January last. The prosecution was conducted by E. S. Finney, Commonwealth's attorney, W. E. Burns and H. A. Routh, Jr., and the defense by J. W. Gent, H. A. Routh, Jr., and T. E. Brown. The trial was a long and a continuance for a new trial, to be had at July term.

John A. Buchanan having preteritorial rights declined a reelection for Congress in this district several years ago, and among them J. W. Marshall, of the county of Craig, familiarly known as "Cyclopaedia Jim," Daniel Trigg, of Abingdon, and Charles T. Dunson, of Lee county.

There is a fair prospect for wheat and oats in this section. Corn is generally small, with a good stand.

A Musical Entertainment—Court of Appeals.
WYTHEVILLE, Va., June 14. (Special.)—For two or three hours yesterday afternoon a band entertained the crowd in front of the rooms where some of the public-spirited ladies of Wytheville were selling an excellent assortment of musical instruments and sheet music.

The court of appeals is now hearing the Commonwealth's case, Attorney-General Scott being present.

Yesterday morning a liquor case was argued by C. A. Hermans, of Christiansburg. A high ten was given at Ingleside, the home of Colonel Withers, this evening, who, with E. Withers, Jr., and his bride, who have just returned from their bridal trip.

The water from Negro's lithia spring, one mile from town, which has proved so beneficial to many, will be brought to town fresh every morning and delivered to customers. This puts two fine mineral waters at Roanoke. There is a free fountain of the chalybeate water on Main street.

Ancient Leather—The Liquor Law.
PULASKI, Va., June 15. (Special.)—Judge Hudson, of this county, showed me a piece of leather recently which he says must have been in the vat from which it was taken for at least one hundred years. The tan yard belonged to his grandfather and had not been used for a century. It was in a good state of preservation and of course thoroughly well tanned.

Yesterday was anti-liquor day in the county court. The judge announced from the bench that imprisonment would be added to the fine imposed by juries.

Rev. Mr. Hook, of the Christian church, who, at one time, was thought would resign his pastorate here, has consented to remain. Rev. Mr. Jones, of the Presbyterian church, is taking a vacation.

Virginia Notes.
The ends of the Virginia Military Institute will attend Roanoke's decennial celebration on the 16th.

The Methodists of Staunton are to erect a handsome new church to cost from $15,000 to $20,000.

James A. Walker Camp of Confederate Veterans, of Pulaski, will celebrate the anniversary of the first battle of Manassas, in which many of its members received their baptism of fire on July 21st.

The degree of doctor of divinity was conferred on H. M. DuBois, editor of the Pacific Methodist, and on Rev. Collins Denny, of Vanderbilt University, at the recent Emory and Henry commencement.

The final exercises of Blacksburg College will commence on the 16th.

Roanoke has organized a board of trade. Mr. W. E. Denton was elected president. Mr. J. B. Johnson vice-president and Mr. B. F. Huff second vice-president.

Mr. B. F. Jenkins last Friday morning caught a carrier pigeon in his yard, near Fredericksburg, which had a brass band on each leg, one uninscribed, the other having on it No. 5492 and the letter H.

Many circulars are being sent out by New York green goods men addressed to farmers of Stafford and Spotsylvania.

There has been much sickness in Madison county.

The Charlottesville Battlefield Association are making many improvements on their property.

No Superhuman Strength, but Natural Vigor.

To cure the muscularity of the individual who snags steel shackles like twigs by simply bending his arm is vouchsafed to few. But to acquire a reasonable amount of physical power and constitutional energy, to eat, sleep and digest well, to possess an equal, quick and nervous system, is possible to the nervous, feeble and decrepit invalid, who acquires and pursues a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The fruition of his hopes is not remote either. Speedily felt are the tonic effects of this invigorating invigilator, and they are no less permanent than prompt attainment. The bowels, the liver, the stomach, the kidneys all co-operate under the medicine to insure those stable guarantees of health, harmony, regularity, vigor of action. Never was there discovered a medicinal motor better calculated to associate and keep moving the main springs of healthful vitality. Use it for malaria, rheumatism, indigestion, biliousness, kidney complaint, is gripple.
